

Viscountess Maidstone, daughter of Mrs. Anthony F. Drexel, soon to visit America again. Her husband holds the Croix de Guerre.

Photo, Underwood & Underwood.

Judge Elbert H. Gary of the United States Steel Corporation testifying before a Senate committee investigating the steel strike. His stand as chairman of the board toward industrial agitators caused worldwide comment.

Copyright, Harris & Ewing.

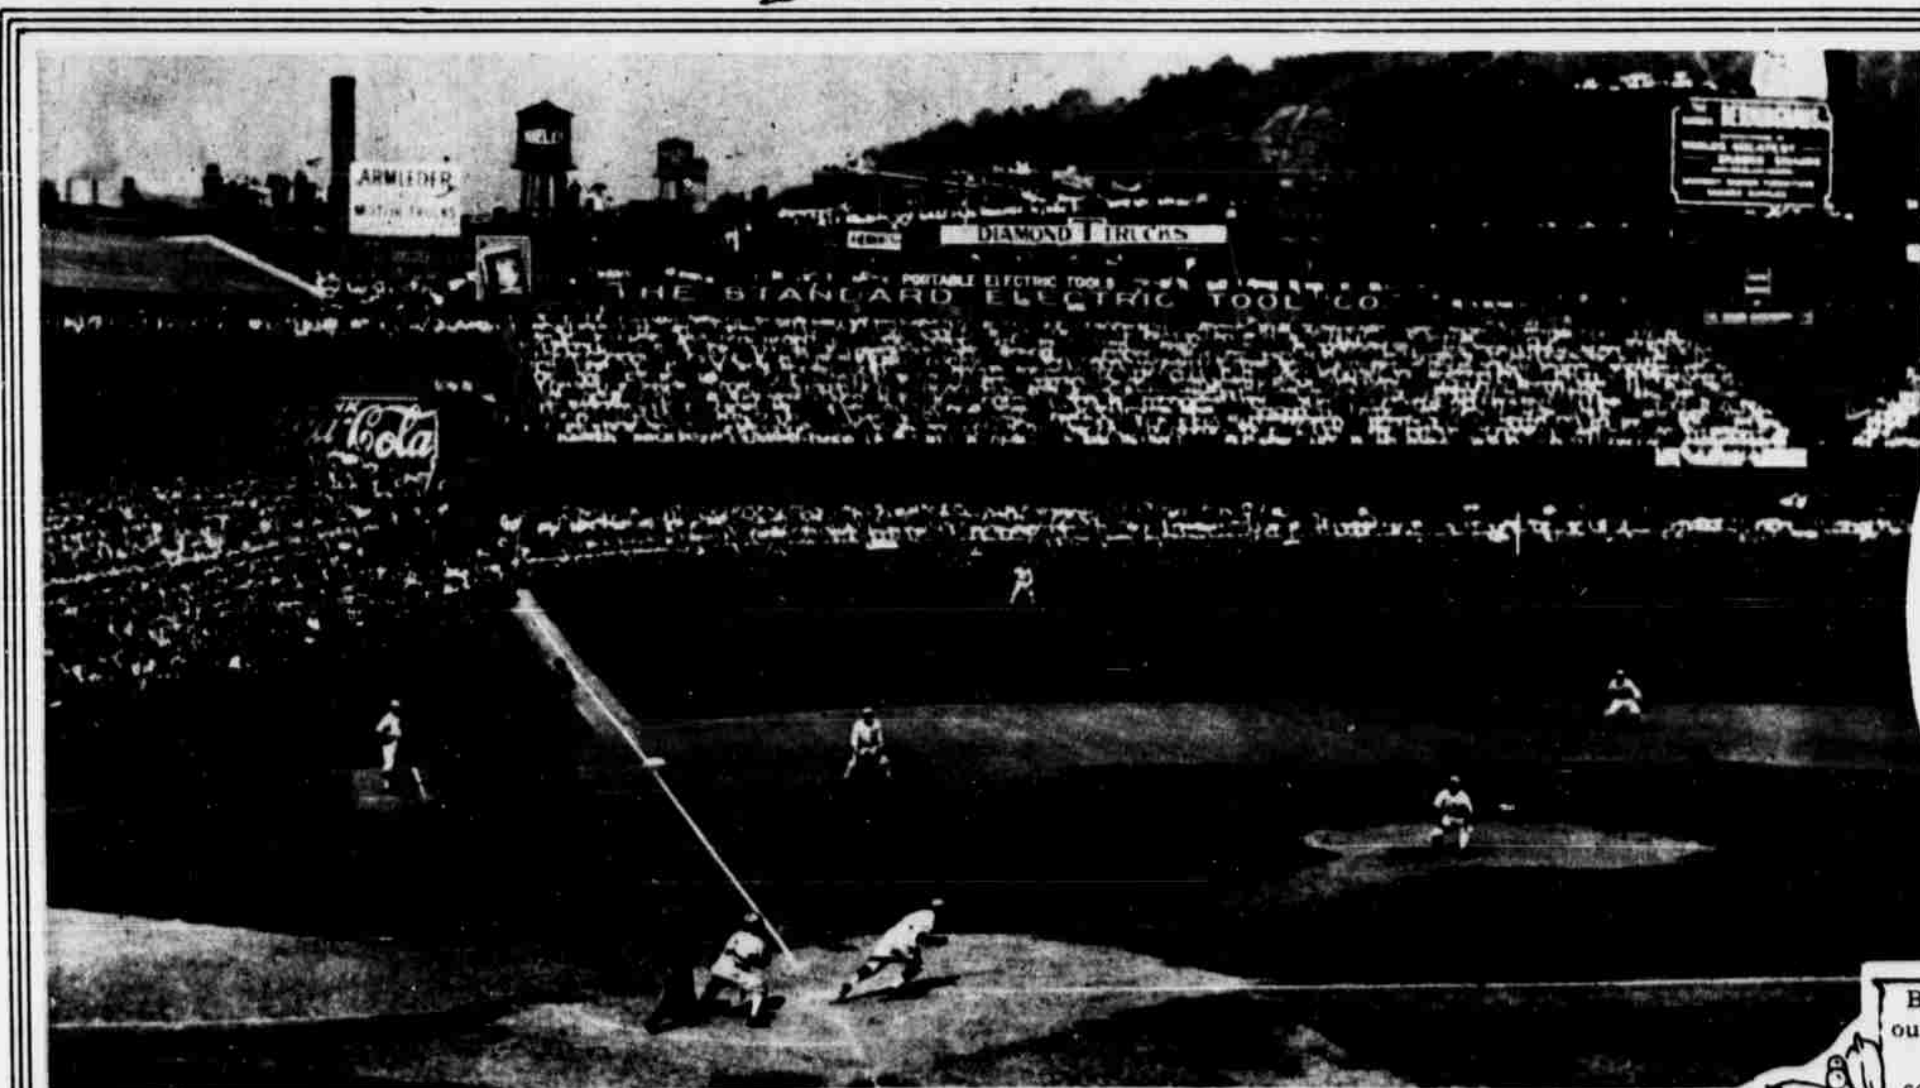

Ignace Paderewski, world famous pianist and Premier of Poland, talking with Gen. Rodwidoski, chief of the Polish mission in Paris. Later the Premier greeted American aviators about to join the Polish army.

Copyright, International Film.

Lieut. Coningsby Dawson and his family, who are visiting America. The war writer's sister, Miss Muriel, is at the extreme right and Mrs. Dawson at the left.

Copyright, International Film.

Opening game of the world's series at Redland Park, Cincinnati, for the baseball championship. The Reds overwhelmingly defeated the Chicago White Sox in this contest.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

Brand Whitlock of Ohio, our Ambassador to Belgium. His nomination was confirmed by the Senate without a record vote—a signal honor for a diplomat.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.